

2,000 on the run in half marathon

MAIDENHEAD: Months of hard work and preparation paid off for runners as they took part in the Pharmalink 2014 Maidenhead Half Marathon. More than 2,000 runners of all ages and abilities took part in the event, which was in its fourth year. Ref:120978-136

TOWN CENTRE: Dozens gathered to watch as wreaths were laid on the war memorial outside Maidenhead Town Hall to remember those who lost their lives in the Battle of Britain. MP Theresa May and the Deputy Mayor of Windsor and Maidenhead, Cllr James Evans, were among those in attendance. Ref:121094-18

PINKNEYS GREEN: Cllr Simon Werner said that 'dogging' is still an ongoing problem in a car park ear Maidenhead Thicket. He said he had taken his three-year-old daughter for a walk and was shocked to find 'people copulating all over the Thicket'. Ref:121063-1

COOKHAM DEAN: Distraught burglary victims wrote an open letter to raiders who ransacked their home and snatched 'priceless' memories. Bill and Catherine Larke described how a lifetime of tireless hard work was destroyed in a matter of moments when their house in Cookham Dean was torn apart while the couple were at work. Ref:120911-7

MARLOW BOTTOM: Performances from 1980s ska legends The Beat and The Echo got the crowds cheering at the Rock Bottom music festival. About 1,000 people enjoyed a full day of live music. Ref:120974-26

TAPLOW: The first shops at the redeveloped Bishop Centre in Bath Road opened their doors. Department store TK Maxx and outdoor retailer Mountain Warehouse welcomed their first customers, with Frankie and Benny's restaurant, Costa Coffee and Evans Cycles joining them later in the month. Ref:120953-12

TWYFORD: A rainbow of runners raced to the finish line to raise money to keep a youth centre open during a colour run. Seventy-five people had colourful powder paint thrown at them as they ran a distance of 3km for Colour Me Twyford at King George V Field.
